ORDER:

Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner as well as the learned counsel appearing for the respondents.

2. Petitioner seeks a writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in ordering suspension of sales and supplies at the outlet vide the report of officials of the respondents, dated 20-11-2006, and on the other hand, issuing a notice, dated 09-05-2007, seeking to terminate the dealership, as illegal and arbitrary.

3. This Writ petition has been filed on 30-05-2007 but all the objections have been complied with on 05-06-2007. It is stated that the dealership of the petitioner was terminated by the 1st respondent vide its order, dated 04-06-2007, and therefore I am of the opinion that the subject matter of the Writ Petition will not survive as the show cause notice was culminated into a final order dated 04-06-2007. Therefore, unless the petitioner questions the final order of the 1st respondent he is not entitled for any relief in this Writ Petition.

4. Accordingly, the Writ Petition is dismissed with a liberty to question the final order, dated 04-06-2007. No order as to costs.
